

Carol Adam Will Be a June Bride

TR E FEB 21 1962

Friends who were party guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin G. Adam in their Encinitas home learned of the engagement of the hosts' daughter, Carol Ann, to Arthur Pierce Dull of Walnut Creek and their plans for a June wedding.

Carol makes her home in Fremont. A graduate of Fresno State College, where her sorority was Phi Mu, she is on the Irvington High School faculty. She is a member of Pi Epsilon national honorary physical education fraternity. Her brother, Gordon T. Adam, is a landscape architecture student at Cal Poly, and he and his wife live in San Gabriel.

Art, who now lives on Castle Hill Road in Walnut Creek while a faculty member at Las Lomas High in the mathematics department, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Dull of Rahara Drive, Lafayette. He is a 1955 graduate of the University of the Pacific and a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity. His grandparents are the senior Charles O. Dulls and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dinelli.

A member of Beta Omega field chapter of Phi Delta Kappa professional teachers' fraternity, he has also been selected for a four-year summer institute in mathematics at the University of Utah under the National Science Foundation, leading to a master's degree.

ance Rules the R

TR E JUL 26 1962

DULL-ADAM

After a Hawaiian summer Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pierce Dull expect to live in Concord. The former Carol Ann Adams of Fremont, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin George Adam of Encinitas, married the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dull of Lafayette at the First Presbyterian Church in Hayward.

She is a graduate of Fresno State College, where she was affiliated with Phi Mu, and is employed by the Mt. Diablo Unified School District. He graduated from the University of the Pacific where he was a Delta Upsilon, and is with the Acalanes Union High School District, on the Las Lomas High School faculty.

Carol Ann wore a flowing silk organza with bouffant skirt and fingertip veil. Her flowers were butterfly orchids with lilies of the valley and stephanotis. Her maids were in ice green organza, their flowers yellow carnations.

Members of the wedding party were Faith Ann Adam, Virginia Ann Boom-er, Judy Ann Wheeler, Robert Gotelli, Gordon Adam, Lindel Sturgen, Michael Dahlgren and Derryl Hamilton.

A garden reception at the home of the bridegroom's parents followed the church ceremonies.

Arthur Dulls Honor Son's Future Bride

TR 5C MAY 10 1953

Honoring Miss Nancy Ann Howe, bride-elect of their son, Arthur P. Dull, the Charles O. Dulls entertained at an open house in their Lafayette home last Sunday afternoon. In addition to over 100 friends and relatives of the Dulls, the affair was attended by the engaged girls' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin E. Howe of Monrovia; her grandmother, Mrs. Elmer Weers of Peoria, Ill., and her sister, Mary Howe, who came from Monrovia with her parents.

The couple's engagement was recently announced by her parents. Miss Howe is an alumna of the College of the Pacific, where her fiancé is now an undergraduate majoring in mathematics. He is a member of Theta Alpha Phi and Phi Alpha Mu on campus and was graduated from Acalanes High School before entering college. He is a grandson of Mrs. Charles O. Dull Sr. of Berkeley and the late Mr. Dull.

At present the newly betrothed pair have not set a wedding date.